

Obituary of Mrs. Patsy Gleason

Mary Corder was born August 25, 1855, at Cusset, Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, where she grew to womanhood, coming to Kansas about 43 years ago. She united with the M. E. church when quite young. She loved the church and attended whenever possible. She was married to Patsy Gleason September 15, 1878 at Beloit, Kansas. To this union eight children were born, one son and seven daughters. One daughter died in infancy. All of the others remain. The children are: Mrs. C. F. Fuller, Hooker, Oklahoma; Mrs. Sam Newell, Oklahoma City; Mrs. C. W. Holt, Moscow; Mrs. Alfred Holt, May, Idaho; Mrs. A. P. Bangs, Liberal; Patsy J. Gleason, Liberal, and Maude Gleason, Liberal.

She leaves two brothers, one sister at Williamsport, Pennsylvania, and fifteen grandchildren. She came to Seward county 18 years ago, and departed this life March 7, 1922, after a few minutes illness.

OKLAHOMA BANKS WERE NATIONALIZED

From Hutchinson Gazette.

The Farmers and Merchants bank at Hooker have been nationalized and the name changed to Farmers and Merchants National Bank. Along with change the First State Bank at Tyrone also became nationalized raising its capital from $15,000 to $25,000.

GOLF CLUB AT FOWLER

A golf course will be laid out at Fowler in the near future. It is the intention of the Fowler people to have the largest club membership between here and Hutchinson. A representative of the Schmeizer Co. is expected in Fowler sometime soon to begin this new work.

Joe Benson was down from Kismet attending to business interests.

G. S. Williams of Floris, drove out a new Ford truck from the Liberal Auto Supply Company this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Pearce are driving a new Chevrolet, bought of the Bodecker Motor Company.

Roy Thorpe has returned from Kansas City where he has spent the past ten days on business matters.

Miss Francis Stivers came down Meade Wednesday for a short visit with friends.

Dr. Vera Young left Wednesday for Chillicothe, Missouri, on a short business trip.

Tom Lane was up from Dalhart Tuesday, visiting at the H. W. Lane home.

B. E. Keating returned Wednesday from Dalhart where he has been in the interest of his plumbing shop at that place.

Al Nelson, the genial and popular manager of the Majestic theatre, has been confined to his home most of the week, suffering with neuralgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matkin returned to their home in Bucklin Wednesday after attending the funeral of Mr. Matkin's father, G. E. Matkin.

Mrs. Lee Casady of Moscow, who has been in a local hospital for some time is a guest at the M. M. Maricle home until she is able to return to her home near Moscow.

Mrs. Frank Taylor returned Wednesday to her home in Almena Kansas after visiting here with her daughter Miss Nettie Taylor who is teaching in the Liberal schools.

Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Ward returned to Wichita Monday morning. Rev. Ward was a former pastor here and many of his old friends were glad for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ward again.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ravenscroft returned Saturday night from Goltry, Oklahoma, where they were called by the illness and death of Mrs. Ravenscroft's mother, Mrs. J. M. Campbell.

Homer Staton of Gainsville, Georgia is in the city this week visiting relatives. Mr. Staton was a former resident of Liberal and is a son-in-law of Mrs. James Cude, who is in a local hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Herbert returned their home in Syracuse Kansas after attending the conference and visiting at the T. J. Smith home. Mrs. Coppedge writes back that they have not had any moisture there during our heavy snow.

The big sign has been placed on the warehouse in south Liberal for the landing field of the airplanes which has been recently arranged for. The words LIBERAL, KANSAS have been placed there in very large letters, and arrows are pointing to the landing field.

Paul DeLeon, construction engineer of the Commonwealth Light & Power Company of New York City, was here several days last week in the interest of the company. Mr. DeLeon had charge of the engineering at the installation of the new engine at the light plant and was here several months. While here he made a lot of friends who were glad to see him again.

John Sweeney who was injured some time ago when thrown from the Ark-lqn bridge while working on the Rock Island is much improved and is able to be about some of the time.

Rev. and Mrs. Coppedge returned to their home in Hasted Kansas after attending the conference and visiting with their daughter Miss Ester Herbert, who is stenographer at the Paul W Light Lumber Co.

Mrs. Harry Peacock returned to her home in Haviland Kansas Wednesday. She came out for the Methodist conference and had the misfortune of spraining her ankle while here which delayed her for several days.

The W. F. M. S. of the Methodist church will meet in the basement of the church Wednesday, March 21st, at two p. m. Each group leader will be expected to give a report on the work that has to be done.

Eldon Dudley will soon leave for Salina, where he will take up vocational training work. He will stay there until July, when he will go to his recently acquired claim in New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Matkin left Wednesday morning for their home in Stillwater, Oklahoma, after staying here for several days during the illness and death of Mr. Matkin's father.

Buy 'Em In Liberal!

Dalton Adding Machines Woodstock Typewriters

A guarantee equal to any machine on the market—
and prices no higher

Ask for Demonstration

Liberal Typewriter Exchange

Phone 116